What resources do you have to promote the event?

By completing this application you agree to promote this event. Please utilize your organization's network as well other forms of advertising such as: social media, PSAs, flyers, etc. It is your responsibility to promote your event. We provide the space and the locally brewed, fresh beer.

You may display promotional goods and information about your organization. We encourage you to take this opportunity to raise awareness of your organization in the community. We will provide a table and two chairs for you to setup your information. We ask that you have at least two representative attend the event to answer questions and share information about the organization. We do not allow handing out of materials or canvassing for donations table-to-table, please respect the fact that many of our customers may not be a part of your organization and may not want to be bothered. If you want to have a raffle, offer any food or other special requests please let us know ahead of time so we can best accommodate your needs. Make your event fun and promote as much as possible to benefit your organization!

The donation is normally processed via check within a week of your event date and can be picked up at our brewery location.

We will post your organization's event information on our website and if you would like, on our Facebook and Twitter feeds.

We are normally scheduled out at least 60-90 days for our calendar and we will notify you when you have been selected. We normally do the scheduling every 30 days, so don't be disappointed if it takes awhile for us to get back to you. We will give you at least 30 days notice so you have plenty time to promote your event.
